AF CHIEF VISITS BASE AT SPRINGS

COLORADO Springs, July 7.—

(AP)—Air Force Secretary Harold F. Talbott scheduled a visit Thursday to the Lowry air defense command in headquarters here. Talbott, chief of the central intelligence agency, his wife and Mrs. Dulles arrived in his personal plane Thursday. Dulles was to secretary, in a jovial interview with reporters, reiterated two previous declarations:

1. "If we were planning to move the air force academy from Colorado Springs we would not be starting work."
2. "The final design of the ca-

pel for the academy has not been completed.

Talbott will present trophies Saturday at the national air convention ball in the Alamo hotel here. He is scheduled to go from Colorado Springs to Denver for the ceremonies dedicating the air force academy at Lowry air force base over the weekend.
